The Rathenow (N 53/Z 15)-Neustadt (N 53/Z 18)-Loewenberg (N 53/Z 69) railroad line together with a newly constructed rail link near Neustadt/Dosse and the new connecting curve near Loewenberg were opened on 14 April 1951.

25X1A

Comment. This is the first report on the completion of the Hohenofen-Barsikow rail link southeast of Neustadt/Dosse. On 12 March 1951, it was reported by another source that this link was still under construction and that it would probably not be completed by the fixed target date. [REDACTED]. The completion of the connecting curve near Loewenberg was previously reported. [REDACTED]
